MR. BOLES WEDS
MARIAN MITCHELLFormer Mishawaka High
School Athlete Takes Bride
—Will Reside Here.

Word has been received announcing the marriage of James H. Boles of this city to Miss Marian Mitchell of South Bend, which took place yesterday afternoon in Chicago. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. C. Travis, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Mishawaka.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boles, 1421 Lincoln way E. He is a graduate of Mishawaka high school. During his career at the local school, Mr. Boles was an all around athlete, on whom the coaches could depend. He played for two years on the football squad and served three years as a member of the basketball team. He is also a world war veteran having served overseas as a member of battery A, 83rd field artillery, having received his honorable discharge several months ago. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mitchell, 919 E. Madison st., South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Boles will spend their honeymoon in Chicago, after which they will be at home to their friends at 1421 Lincoln way E.

DEATH COMES AFTER TWO HOURS' ILLNESS

Charles Westfall, 109 W. Battell st., died last night at seven o'clock after only two hours' illness. Mr. Westfall was stricken with apoplexy at five o'clock. He was immediately removed to St. Joseph's hospital where he died two hours later without regaining consciousness.

He was born in Pennsylvania, Jan. 26, 1852 being 67 years old. In 1872 he was married to Miss Ellen Fredericks, who survives with one son, Harry of Mishawaka. He is also survived by a brother, Allan Westfall residing in Canada and a sister at South Bend.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

GOOD BILL AT LINCOLN.
"Some Bride," a brilliant comedy-drama in which Viola Dana is seen at her charming and clever best, is the feature at the Lincoln theater today.

The play shows that although a young bride with "can't-behave" eyes may like to flirt she is skating on the thin edge of her husband's affections if she persists in this dangerous though fascinating occupation.

This is the trouble between the Morleys. Patricia likes the admiration of other men and Henry is insanely jealous. They both play a game of cross-purposes which almost ends in matrimonial disaster.

GRANGE ELEVATOR TO BE READY IN DECEMBER

Work is progressing rapidly on the new Grange elevator being erected on S. Union st., immediately south of the Lake Shore tracks. The enterprise, known as the Grange Elevator Co., marks a new step in the farming industry in Penn township. The company was organized about two months ago with a capital stock of $50,000 all of which has been taken by farmers in the community. Marvin Houston, a well known local farmer, is president of the concern which will market all the products of the Grange membership. It is the intention of the management to handle coal this coming winter and eventually all such products as are essential to farming communities. The elevator will be completed and in operation during the latter part of the present year.

WOOLEN COMPANY
DIVIDES $81,437

Three Thousand Workers Participate in Extra Bonus at Rate of 14 1/2 Percent.

A sum amounting to $81,437.20 was distributed among more than 3,000 "Ball-Band" workers by the Mishawaka Woolen Mfg. Co., Thursday. Office employees as well as factory workers participated in the division which was in the nature of an extra bonus which is paid every two months, this being the fifth payment made to date this year. It is figured at the rate of 14 1/2 percent on the earnings of the employees for the nine-week period. These extra bonuses disbursed by the Woolen company are contributing largely to the splendid cooperation between employer and employee which exists to an unusual degree in this corporation.
